INDEX TO VOLUME II

A

Alexander, John, Discussion carcinoma of esophagus, 245
Discussion on phrenicectomy, 588
Special considerations relating to surgical closure of large upper lobe tuberculous cavities, 1
(with Nehil, L. W.), Phrenic nerve interruption, 549
American Association for Thoracic Surgery, 113
List of members, 225
16th Annual Meeting, officers for 1934, new members, 531
16th Annual Meeting (Preliminary Program), 321
16th Annual Meeting (Program), 426
Anesthesia: Nitrous oxide oxygen in thoracic surgery (Miller), 296
Aorta (thoracic) effect of complete occlusion of (Blalock), 69
Archibald, Edward W., Discussion of carcinoma of lung, 265
Discussion on symposium on tuberculosis, 21
Atelectasis in pulmonary tuberculosis, 637

B

Badham, Charles (abst.), 638
Ballon, David H., Some observations upon the value of bronchoscopy in the treatment of bronchiectasis, 267
Ballon, Harry, Discussion of innervation of lungs, 195
The operability of carcinoma of the lung, 323
(with McCordock, Howard A.), The mechanism of the development of tuberculous pneumonia following thoracoplasty, 24
(with Carlson, Wilson, and Graham), Phrenicectomy, 573
Beck, Claude S. (with Bright, Ernest F.), Changes in the heart and pericardium brought about by compression of the legs and abdomen, 616
Beecher, H. K. (with Bradshaw, H. H.), A method of measuring lung volume in dogs, 439
Effect of laparotomy and abdominal distention on lung volume, 444
Berck, Maurice, Experimental fixation of mediastinum, 34
Bernard, L. (abst.), 111
Berry, Frank B., Tuberculous pyopneumothorax with pyogenic infection, 139
Berry, Frank (abst.), 314
Bethune, Norman, The silver clip method of preventing hemorrhage while severing intrapleural adhesions, 302
Bettman, Ralph B. Extrapleural thoracoplasty in the presence of pneumo- or hydrothorax, 154
(with Perlow, Samuel, and Cohn, David J.), Diagnosis of bronchial fistulas, 213
Discussion of carcinoma of lung, 264
Blalock, Alfred, The effects of complete occlusion of the thoracic aorta, an experimental study, 69
Blalock, Alfred (abst.), 527
Book Review, 319
Bradshaw, H. H. (with Beecher, H. K.), A method of measuring lung volume in dogs, 439
Effect of laparotomy and abdominal distention on lung volume, 444
Bright, Ernest F. (with Beck), Changes in the heart and pericardium brought about by compression of the legs and abdomen, 616
Briscoe, C. (abst.), 310
Bronchiectasis, Bronchoscopy in the treatment of (Ballon), 267
Bronchopulmonary smooth muscle, behavior of, as demonstrated by electrobronchographic records (Butler), 589
Bronchoscopy, bronchiectasis, in treatment of (Ballon), 267
Bronchoscopy, thoracic surgery and (Hudson), 292
Bronchus, fistula, bronchial, diagnosis of, 213
Bronfin, I. D. (abst.), 314
Butler, Ethan Flagg, Behavior of bronchopulmonary smooth muscle as demonstrated by electrobronchographic records, 589

C

Carajannapoulos, G. (abst.), 106
Carlson, Herbert A., Inhibition of respiration as a factor in the pathogenesis of postoperative pulmonary complications, 196
(with Ballon, Harry), The operability of carcinoma of lung, 323
(with Ballon, Wilson, and Graham), Phrenicectomy, effect of, upon cough and expectoration, 573
Carr, J. G. (abst.), 313
Chernyk, M. (abst.), 314
Cherry, Homer H. (abst.), 224
Childs, E. P. (abst.), 314

Churchill, Edward D., Discussion of carcinoma of lung, 266
Discussion on heart and pericardium changes, 628
Discussion of innervation of lungs, 195
Discussion on lung volume, 450
The surgical treatment of carcinoma of the lung, 254
Coal miner's lung, 638
Cochran, H. W. (with Moore, R. L.), Pulmonary expansion and minute volume flow of blood through lungs, 468
Cohn, David J. (with Bettman, R. B., and Perlow, S.), Bronchial fistulas, diagnosis of, 213
Cole, Dean B., Discussion of phrenicectomy, 614
Cole, Dean B. (with Johns, Frank S.), Thoracoplasty (partial) for pulmonary tuberculosis, 247
Coryllos, Pol. N. (abst.), 637
Discussion of bronchopulmonary smooth muscle behavior, 598
Discussion on phrenicectomy, 586, 613, 614
Etiology, prevention and treatment of postoperative hemorespiratory complications in the surgical treatment of tuberculosis. Endotracheal anesthesia combined with suction, 384
(with Tow, A.), Left congenital diaphragmatic hernia, in a baby of 13 days, operated on successfully, 56
Cutler, Discussion of phrenicectomy, 613

D

Davison, T. C., Discussion on removal of needle from heart, 634
Decker, H. Ryerson, Discussion on phrenicectomy, 588
Results of phrenic nerve operations in 222 cases with discussion of technic of operations, 538
Denk, W. (abst.), 109, 312
Diaphragm, hernia of (Coryllos and Tow), 56 removal of, experimental (Reichert), 349 paralysis of, experimental, effects of (Reichert), 349 paralyzed, tensile strength (Meade), 503
tensile strength of paralyzed (Meade), 503
Domanig, E., (abst.), 109

E

Eggers, Carl, Experiences with carcinoma of the esophagus, 229
Elkin, Daniel C. (with Sandison, J. C.), Penetrating wounds of the chest, 453
Ellison, R. T. (abst.), 221
Eloesser, Leo, Discussion on phrenicectomy, 587
Empyema, bilateral (Steinke), 287 chronic, treatment of, by tidal irrigation (Hart), 157
flanged telescoping tube in drainage of (Van Allen), 307 tuberculous, surgical treatment of (Hedblom), 115
tuberculous, treatment of (Berry), 139
Eructation, mechanics of (Joannides), 380
Esophagus, carcinoma, surgical treatment of (Eggers), 229
Evans, Arthur (abst.), 425

F

Felix, A. (abst.), 103
Forsee, James H., Closed intrapleural pneumolysis in the artificial treatment of pulmonary tuberculosis, 270

G

Geipel, P. (abst.), 219
Graham, Evarts A., Discussion of afferent pathways from thoracic viscera, 194
Discussion of carcinoma of lung, 263
Discussion (fixation of mediastinum), 54
Discussion of phrenicectomy, 588, 611, 613
Discussion of treatment of chronic empyema, 177
(with Carlson, Ballon, and Wilson), Phrenicectomy, 573

H

Hart, Deryl, Discussion of treatment of chronic empyema, 180
Treatment of chronic empyema of tidal irrigation, suction and thoracoplasty, 157
Hayes, J. N., Dangers and complications of oleothorax, 34
Heart, and pericardium, changes in, brought about by compression of legs and abdomen (Beck and Bright), 616
carcinoma of, secondary (Mead), 87
mediastinotomy for experiments on in dog (Horine), 77
surgical relief of cardiac pain (Heinbecker), 517
Hedblom, Carl A., Discussion of carcinoma of lung, 266
Discussion on phrenicectomy, 585, 613
Discussion of treatment of chronic empyema, 179
The surgical treatment of tuberculous empyema, 115

Heinbecker, Peter, Anatomic and physiologic criteria for surgical relief of cardiac pain, 517
Concerning the nature and function of certain afferent pathways from the thoracic viscera, 183
Discussion of innervation of the lungs, 195
Heuer, George, Discussion on heart and pericardium changes, 616
Discussion, penetrating wounds of the chest, 466
Discussion on phrenicectomy, 587

Leslie, G. L. (abst.), 317
Levy, R. L. (abst.), 105
Lilienthal, Howard, Discussion of bronchopulmonary smooth muscle behavior, 599
Discussion of phrenicectomy, 585, 614
Pneumectomy for sarcoma of lung in tuberculous patient, 600
Lobar pneumonia, experimental pneumococcus, in dog, 635
Lockwood, Charles D., In memoriam, 113
Lord, Frederick T., Discussion of carcinoma of lung, treatment of, 263
Lung, abscess of, experimental (Tuttle and Nicoll), 60
carcinamo (Mead), 87
carcinoma of (Carlson and Ballon), 323
Lung—Cont'd
carcinoma of, surgical treatment of (Churchill), 254 circulation in pulmonary and bronchial (Horine and Warner), 80 hernia of (Goodman), 368 minute volume flow of blood, experimental, factors affecting (Moore and Cochran), 468 postoperative pulmonary complications (Carlson), 196 pulmonary expansion (Moore and Cochran), 468 volume, a method of measuring in dogs (Beecher and Bradshaw), 439 volume, effect of laparotomy and abdominal distention on (Beecher and Bradshaw), 444
